

SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES

Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life. I receive not honour from men. But I know you, that ye have not the love of Elohim in you. I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive. How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from Yahweh only? Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Mosheh, in whom ye trust. For had ye believed Mosheh, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me. But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words? (John 5:39—47)

FROM THE EDITOR

THE GREAT CONSPIRACY!

Is there a conspiracy? There are many, many authors who have written and spoken of such. How deep does it go? Far deeper than anyone can imagine. In the first place, no one can come to the knowledge of the truth (Yahshua) unless Heavenly Father calls him (Jn. 6:44).

Adam and Eve rejected the tree of life by partaking of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil (the tree of death). This served the purpose of blinding themselves and their descendants. Yahweh, Himself, says, "And in this mountain (the soon coming kingdom of heaven) shall Yahweh of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined. And he will destroy in this mountain (the present worldly kingdom) the face of the covering cast over all people, and the vail that is spread over all nations," Isa. 25:6-7.

Have you ever thought about that? Yahweh has spread a vail over ALL nations. Why? Because all nations are the descendants of Adam and Eve, and all descendants of Adam and Eve are laden with the sins, corruption, and death of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. Yahweh called Abram (Abraham), Isaac, and Jacob (Israel) out of the world in order to work His purposes. However, He even purposely blinded the overall preponderance of the children of Israel so He could have mercy on all (Ro. 11).

The tabernacle in the wilderness, and later temple were types of this. Only an elected few of the Levites were allowed into the sanctuary of the tabernacle. These elected few priests were a type of the elect few that have been called to serve as priests under the heavenly High Priest Melchizedek (Yahshua). Yet, only one high priest was allowed to enter the Holy of Holies one day per year. This one high priest was a type of Yahshua, the High Priest after the order of Melchizedek Who came to declare that He had seen the Father in the holiest place. No one had seen Him nor heard His voice (Jn. 5:37).

We find therefore, that the original conspiracy began with the serpent who deceived the woman to partake of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. His plan worked because he sought to exalt himself (Isa. 14:12-14). He blinded the woman with deceit knowing full well that he would become the master of Adam kind, mankind with his blinding lies.

A STUDY INTO THE BOOK OF DANIEL

DANIEL CHAPTER 10

This chapter, like the rest, is full of surprising information. May Yahweh bless you to be able to understand these things.

Dan. 10:1 In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, but the time appointed was long: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

COMMENT: I would like to again point out that it was the practice of Babylon/Babel to change names instead of transliterating them. Daniel means "El is my Judge." If we hearken back to Daniel 1:7 where the chief eunuch changed the names of Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, the Adam Clark Commentary has this to say, "Unto whom the prince of the eunuchs gave names] This change of names, Calmet properly remarks, was a mark of dominion and authority. It was customary for masters to impose new names upon their slaves; and rulers often, on their ascending the throne, assumed a name different from that which they had before. דַּנְיֵאל DANIEL signifies "God is my Judge." This name they changed into בִּלְטַשְׁצָר BELTESHATSTSAR; in Chaldee, "The treasure of Bel," or "The despository of the secrets (or treasure) of Bel." הַנַּנְיָה HANANIAH signifies, "The Lord has been gracious to me," or "He to whom the Lord is gracious." This name was changed into שְׁדַרְךְ SHADRACH, Chaldee, which has been variously translated: "The inspiration of the sun;" "God the author of evil, be propitious to us;" "Let God preserve us from evil." מִשְׁאֵל MISHAEL signifies "He who comes from God." Him they called מֶשַׁח MESHACH, which in Chaldee signifies, "He who belongs to the goddess Sheshach," a celebrated deity of the Babylonians, mentioned by Jeremiah, Jer 25:26. עֲזַרְיָה AZARIAH, which signifies "The Lord is my Helper," they changed into אֲבֶד־נֶגוֹ ABED-NEGO, which in Chaldee is "the servant of Nego," who was one of their divinities; by which they meant either the sun, or the morning star; whether Jupiter or Venus. The vicious pronunciation of this name should be carefully avoided; I mean that which lays the accent on the first syllable, and hurries to the end, without attending to the natural division of the word Abed-Nego.” (Power Bible)

Did you notice that even the meanings of the names were changed? So the question is, “What about the appellatives that are substituted in today’s Scriptures?” We have proven that “the Lord” would be “הבעל” (haBaal) in Hebrew. Baal was actually a common name that was taken and made into a proper noun. “God” is anciently associated with Taurus the Bull (remember the golden calf?) and was also a deity of fortune (Isa. 65:11). “Jesus” was originally rendered as “Iesus” in the 1611 King James Version. Later in that century it was changed to a “J”.

We recently received a letter from an inmate who was questioning clarification on the name Jesus because there are a couple of men (originally from Worldwide Church of God) who are now claiming to be Messianics, but are utilizing the erroneous Jesus name. I emailed one of the men informing him of the inmate’s complaint, and he commenced to inform me that “Jesus” is the transliteration of the Greek “Iesous.” As I have written time and time again, my own studies go back to the Roman Emperor Constantine the Great who entered into the New Testament Assembly and took over dictating Sunday in place of the Sabbath as well as other things. I have identified him in the series on Daniel as the “little horn” of chapter 8.

This little horn cast the truth to the earth and stamped upon it. Not only did he change the day of worship, but I have found that he changed the name of the Savior so that he could give honor to the god of forces (Dan. 11:38). Constantine served with His father in the British Isles where the Druids worshipped a deity named Yesu (pronounced Hesus). On the mainland of Europe, the Druids there worshipped the same deity, but they spelled his name Esus (also pronounced Hesus). If we combine Yesu with Esus, the result is Yesus, which is the Latin version of Iesus/Jesus. It is obvious that King James followed Constantine in rebellion against Yahweh and His Messiah, “Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against Yahweh, and against his anointed (Messiah), saying, Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us,” Psa. 2:1-3.

The fact of the matter is that the kings, rulers, leaders of this world have their own idea of their god (-s), deities, and they want their people to be loyal and faithful to them, and their faith, their god! King Jeroboam of Israel set the example when he was split off from King Rehoboam of Judah, son of Solomon. After all, he had gotten crosswise with Solomon and had to flee to Egypt where they worshipped the Apis calf/bull. He had golden images of this calf/bullock made and placed one in Bethel and the other in Dan, telling the people that they were their gods (1 Ki. 12).

Here is a transcript of our conversation:

JH: Shalom Tim, I haven’t seen you for awhile. Hope all is well with you. I received a letter from a prisoner who is questioning how and why you and Dean Wheelock determined that the Greek Iesous = Jesus. He says that you claim that you searched the Greek Septuagint in order to make your determination. Here is the problem, the Greek Septuagint was translated from the Hebrew Old Testament Scriptures by Hebrew Scribes before there was a New Testament, as you should well know. The name that was transliterated into Iesous was the name of the Patriarch Yahshua, Joshua. Iesous was never meant to be transliterated as Jesus. The true transliteration continues to be revealed in all English Scriptures by the Old Testament name Joshua (Yashua). There is no true comparison between the names Joshua (Yahshua) and Jesus. I have prepared a tract entitled “What Is

The True Name of the Savior?” I am forwarding a copy of it for your perusal. It will contain the true history of the two names.

TK: Hi Jerry—Not sure who the prisoner was that contacted you, but he didn’t quite convey the facts correctly. In the class that I teach in an east Texas prison, I showed that—though not preferred, there is nothing ‘pagan’ about the name Jesus, nor is there anything pagan about referring to Yeshua as Jesus. I referenced the LXX in two places only to show that it was a common Greek practice to end the names of males with a “us” sound, and that there is no way a person can claim that “Jesus” refers to a horse or the Greek god ‘Zeus.’ After skimming your tract, I see that you and I somewhat agree that the Messiah’s name is in many ways equal to that of Joshua (Yehoshua) in the Tanakh. In an article I wrote and that is available on my website (amiyisrael.org/articles/Yeshua\_to\_Jesus.htm), I show how easy it is to take the Greek “Iesous” (Joshua) and transliterate it so that you end up with “Jesus”.

Bottom line—though I prefer to use the name “Yeshua” instead of “Jesus”, I use the name that is appropriate to my audience. I’m trying to maintain the high road and not be offensive to others so that I might reach those YHVH is calling into this walk. Thus I rarely bring up the idea that something is ‘pagan’, but instead try to be positive in my teaching without tearing others down.

BTW—I did a somewhat extensive study into the LXX vs Masoretic text as an introduction to a study I did on Psalm 22. If interested, you can find it on my website amiyisrael.org/articles.html.

If you hear from that prisoner again, you might want to set him strait. Tim Kelley

JH: Tim, the transliteration is Joshua, not Jesus. Jesus is a complete and total error.

TK: That’s only if you’re starting with Hebrew. The NT starts with Greek—unfortunately.

JH: Unfortunately, that assumption is wrong. Yahshua was Hebrew, He came to Hebrews, He called Hebrews, after all, He was a type of Moses who did the same thing. He spoke Hebrew, they spoke Hebrew. Even Paul says “to the Jew first, and then to the Gentile.” The original NT writings were in Hebrew, not Greek. Constantine and the Jewish Rabbis did everything they could to destroy the Hebrew documents. Even E. W. Bullinger says that all of the NT idioms are Hebrew idioms and could be understood in the Hebrew language, but not the Greek. You are making a very critical error, but all I can do is warn you. You should rethink this thing. But your name, my name, everyone’s name is transliterated the same in every language. Constantine is the one who coined the name Jesus from the Druidic god Yesu (British Isles) and Esus (European Mainland). He did the same thing with the name as he did with the Sabbath.

TK: Jerry—Unfortunately, we don’t have a Hebrew New Testament, and even though the idioms and way of thinking are clearly Hebrew, the text—at least what text we have—came from the Greek. There is no Hebrew New Testament—at least not that we know of.

As far as transliteration—names are indeed transliterated, but the alphabetical characters (glyphs) that are used to transliterate are different from language to language. Keep in mind that transliteration is not simply saying the sounds, but is actually writing the sounds. (see merriam-webster.com/dictionary/transliterate). Some sounds cannot be correctly written from one language to another. For instance, English has no characters in its alphabet that make the sound of the Hebrew letter “chet”. Thus the word “masach” (Hebrew for “anoint”) cannot be accurately written in English because it has a guttural sound at the end for which English has no counterpart.

Bottom line—absolute perfect transliteration from one language to another is simply not possible. Therefore, it is quite likely that the Aramaic name “Yeshua” when written in Greek (which is all we have in regards to the NT), then transliterated into Latin, possibly into German, then into English, then into modern English, changed a little along the way. In comparison, the name Joshua in the OT is transliterated (though not perfectly because the original Hebrew text has no vowel points) directly from Hebrew to English.

Believe me—I know what you’re saying. I used to believe the same thing, but it wasn’t until I learned a little about linguistics that I came to see where I was wrong in regards to the Jesus-pagan thing. I use the Aramaic name “Yeshua” for our deliverer and variations of the 4-letter YHVH for our Creator. I do it out of 1) sincerity, 2) truth, 3) prayer for understanding, and 4) diligent study. I believe YHVH is pleased with my diligence. Shalom, Tim. (end conversation)

I ended the conversation because I knew that no matter of reasoning on my part, even with the Scriptures, will change his mind, because he is secure in his own studies and belief and believes that Yahweh is pleased with him. But the fourth empire of Daniel 7 is the great and terrible beast power, which Scriptural and secular history reveals is Rome which continues until the Messiah returns. History reveals that the Caesars/Czars/Tsars became the heads of Christianity which has been greatly corrupted by them including King James of England. None has sought to restore the truth and the book of Revelation reveals the woman, Mystery Babylon riding upon the scarlet colored beast which is full of names of blasphemy (Rev. 17:1-5).

As for offending those who are supposedly are being called, if their hearts are right, then they will love the truth because it isn’t possible to worship Yahweh in any other way. (Jn. 4:24)

Another case in point is that the New Testament was originally written in Hebrew but was sought out and destroyed by the Caesars and the Jewish Rabbis (they admit this in the Talmudic writings). Yahweh declares, “Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh unto thee: he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass. (This is Yahshua at His first coming.) And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem, and the battle bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak peace unto the heathen: and his dominion shall be from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth. As for thee also, by the blood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water. Turn you to the strong hold, ye prisoners of hope: even to day do I declare that I will render double unto thee; When I have bent Judah for me, filled the bow with Ephraim, and raised up thy sons, O Zion, against thy sons, O Greece, and made thee as the sword of a mighty man. And Yahweh shall be seen over them, and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and Adonai Yahweh shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with whirlwinds of the south. Yahweh of hosts shall defend them; and they shall devour, and subdue with sling stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine; and they shall be filled like bowls, and as the corners of the altar. And Yahweh their Elohim shall save them in that day as the flock of his people: for they shall be as the stones of a crown, lifted up as an ensign upon his land,” Zech. 9:9-16.

I would tread very lightly in trusting anything Greek because of these very Scriptures. There are copies of the Aramaic, and the Aramaic has also been translated into the Hebrew.

Another problem is if we transliterate from the Hebrew into the Greek, and then into Latin, and then into Old English, and then into modern English, the whole thing won't come out like the original. We do have the Old Testament Hebrew Scriptures from which we can transliterate into the English rather than going all the way around the world. Remember the games we played when young? Especially the one where one person would whisper something into another's ear and then it would be passed on from person to person until it came back to the originator? It always was so corrupted that it was never the same that the originator had said. This is the same thing that happens when we transliterate from Hebrew into Greek, into Latin, into English. The book of Acts declares, “Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved,” Acts 4:12. Is that name Yahshua/Joshua, or Yesus/Jesus? Those names ARE NOT the same!

Another point is that the Greeks added a sigma “S” at the end of a name to indicate masculinity sometimes, but not all the time, not a “us.” The name Iesous appeared so many times as Iesou (no sigma) in both Old and New Testaments. One of the main points of transliteration is the fact that some names can’t be perfectly transliterated into another language as with the Hebrew name Yahshua (יהושע). There is no shin (שׁ) in Greek so they can’t say the “sh” sound, but the shin also is also a sin (שׁ) which sounds like an “s”. Therefore, the scribes were attempting to transliterate the “sound” of the name Yahshua as closely as they could so the original sound would have most like been Yahsua. Languages change over time which is evidently what happened to the Greek.

One final point, when he says that transliteration is not only saying the sound, but writing the sound, I agree and we should get as close to the sound as possible. How is it that someone can study the Septuagint (LXX) knowing that Iesous was the original transliteration for Yahshua, and then support the transliteration for Jesus in the NT for the same Greek name? You can reason all you want to, but we will stand for the truth of the matter!

JH

Dan. 10:2 In those days I Daniel was mourning three full weeks.

3 I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel;

5 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Uphaz:

6 His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength.

9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground.

10 And, behold, an hand touched me, which set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands.

COMMENT: Even though the angel/messenger didn't identify himself by name, we know it wasn't Michael because we are informed that it was Michael who helped him against the angel of Persia. It was most likely Gabriel.

Dan. 10:11 And he said unto me, O Daniel, a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling.

12 Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy Elohim, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

COMMENT: “Chief” is translated from the Hebrew reshown (רִשׁוֹן) which is also translated as “first.” He was one of the “first princes.”

Dan. 10:14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days.

15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb.

16 And, behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my Master, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

COMMENT: This one like the similitude of the sons of Adam would be the one who later became Yahshua the Messiah. This would have been Michael the Archangel (see our article in Yahshua’s Witness Magazine, Jan.-Mar. 2017).

17 For how can the servant of this my Master talk with this my Master? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

18 Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me, 19 And said, O man greatly beloved, fear not: peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my Master speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grecia shall come.

21 But I will shew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that holdeth with me in these things, but Michael your prince.

COMMENT: Michael is Israel's prince. Israel's Prince, King, Savior, Redeemer, Messiah is Yahshua. Chapter 10 is a jump off to chapters 11 & 12 which have to do with the latter days, as stated. JH

PLEA FROM A PRISONER

Greetings in the Name above all others, My fervent prayer is that this has found you and the rest of my Brothers & Sisters who assembly together there blessed exceeding abundantly above all you ask or even think. Even here, within the confines of this prison I'm incarcerated in, this old brother is immensely blessed by our awesome Abba Who continuously shows Himself to be quite able and more than willing to get good out of what our adversary and his minions have meant for evil. HalleluYah!!!

Sir, I am quite sure that you are an extremely busy man considering the many "hats" you wear in order to carry out the duties of the callings our Abba has placed upon you. With that in mind, I will try very hard to keep this as brief as I possibly can. At the same time, I know that if I fail to convey what I need to in my effort to keep it brief and not impose on your time too much, I will end up wasting both my time as well as yours. Please bear with me as I try to get it right, okay? Back in 6-12-16 I turned sixty-five years of age. I have served nearly fourteen years on a twenty year sentence I was given for aggravated assault on a public servant. I'm embarrassed to share that I was an ordained nondenominational Protestant Christian minister for twelve years prior to my arrest and subsequent incarceration. The first six or so years here I was a devout Christian serving as an elder under a former Protestant Chaplain. I preached numerous sermons from the pulpit in the large chapel here, taught a ministerial class that resulted in a number of other inmates becoming licensed ministers with the ministerial association I was ordained with, and held fellowship meetings in the gym or out on the recreation yard on a regular basis that saw as many as thirty-five inmates in attendance. I honestly thought I was going about our Abba's business as He would have me to. However, over the course of that time our Abba kept putting individuals in my path who were forever telling me I was wrong to observe the first day of the week as the day of rest instead of the seventh day. I was wrong to observe Christmas, Easter, and other holidays derived from and chocked full of paganism, instead of the Holy Days our Abba set forth in Leviticus chapter twenty-three, and I was wrong in so many other ways. I cannot remember how many times I rebuked them in the name of J-s-s and said, "Get behind me Satan." There were even a few times that I thought about "laying hands on them" without any thought of praying for them while doing it. However, over time our Abba convinced me that they were right and I converted to Messianic Judaism a little over seven years ago now. What a delight it has been to walk in His Truth since then! I'm sure that you're aware of the fact that as Sabbath keeping, Torah observant prisoners were not permitted to assemble together in a designated place at a set time for our Sabbath services, Holy Days and for Scripture studies back then. I joined together with a few brothers to fast and pray about it as well as file grievances and write letters to get things changed. Sure enough, our Abba moved in a mighty way to cause laws to be passed so we can assemble for two hours if we have a "free world" volunteer to conduct/facilitate for us and one hour with an inmate leading the services. We wrote numerous letters to ministries and congregations out there asking them to seek our Abba's will as to whether He would lead some of them to do what is needed to become volunteers. I am deeply saddened to share that right at nine of each ten of our letters received no response at all. Sir, it seems that the founders, elders & members of most of the ministries and congregations which claim to be forgiven by our Abba through the sacrifice of our Kinsman Redeemer Yahshua apparently don't believe that Yahshua's sacrifice was sufficient to forgive us convicted felons of our sin. Or, it might be that they just don't think a prison ministry, that entails them having to come in contact with men who have been convicted of vile and egregious crimes, is prestigious enough for them? I don't honestly know, but I do know that most of us will be released one day and out there on the other side of the razor wire that confines us now, if we continue in our walk with our Abba and Redeemer we will be law abiding citizens who will need the mentoring support, exhortation, and encouragement of others that only comes from assembling together. If we become discouraged because we cannot get the support we need, either in here, or out there, there will be some who will fall away and likely return to criminal conduct. The founders, elders, and members of the ministries and congregations out there have a choice*...Have us out there living according to Torah, which means we will be living upright before our Abba and them, or have us out there living in their cities and neighborhoods committing crime! (*See note below)

For several years we were blessed to have a dear couple, Ron & Donna McKown, coming in on the first Sabbath of each month when they were able. Then there was a Church of God member who came on the second Sabbath of each month. Finally, we've had a Sister coming in on the third and fourth Sabbaths as well. Sadly, Sister Donna McKown passed away and Ron hasn't returned. Then the COG member quit coming so he could go to a unit closer to his home. Therefore, we are desperately in need of volunteers to come in and conduct or facilitate our Sabbath and Holy Day observances as well as Scripture studies. We would be so very grateful if you would put the word out regarding our need, Sir. Up until a few months ago, we had over eighty men in attendance at our Sabbath services. As you likely know, we are all forced to meet in one group with the Messianics, C.O.G, Yahwists, etc., etc. combined. I'm sorry to have to share that too many of the men haven't been able to be in one accord over the numerous things we all agree on, but have chosen to let the few things we/they don't agree on cause strife and division to the point that our attendance is down to around thirty now. We are sorely in need of male volunteers who are full of our Abba's Ruach and strong in His word to come in and guide/instruct us as His spirit leads. If you, or others you know are aware of such men in your as-semblies or elsewhere we would genuinely appreciate it if you would have them either write me so I can share what I know about our unit, its administration, chaplaincy, and our assembly, or they can call the unit and ask to talk with the chaplain. (I will warn you not that he has let it be clearly known that he considers us a cult.)

Having read so many of your articles in the various publications you distribute, I am fully confident that you will be in much prayer regarding this letter and do what our awesome Abba leads you to. That being the case, I will thank you in advance for it, sir, trusting that I will be hearing from you, or others you have discussed this with soon. Thank you for bearing with me as I've attempted to write as our Abba's Ruach has led.

*I understand that it is actually each believer's choice as to whether we will continue in our walk or fall away. However, by their choices to ignore us they will be held accountable!

Respectfully yours, JB Mullins/Wynne Unit, Huntsville, TX.

FOLLOW UP!

This letter stirred my spirit to see what could be done. I contacted Chaplain Lowe who was very compliant with the idea of my going into the Wynne Unit on the second Sabbath of each month. I was already going into the Beto Unit from 12:30 p.m.—2:30 p.m. The men at the Wynne Unit meet from 8:30 a.m.—10:30 a.m. This means that I must arise at 4:00 a.m., leave home at 4:30 a.m. in order to arrive at the Wynne Unit for the 8:30 a.m. time slot. I leave immediately after the 10:30 a.m. time period for the Beto Unit arriving just in time for the 12:30 p.m. time for the men there.

My wife packs a lunch for me which I munch on between facilities. I am also seeking to return to the Coffield Unit which is a short distance from the Beto Unit. Their meeting time is 2:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. I was hoping to be able to change their time from 2:30 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.—5:00 p.m. This circuit on the second Sabbath of the month would be a most spiritually edifying, and great blessing for yours truly. However, the Chaplain there is not as compliant as the ones at the first two units. I am sure Yahweh has a reason for that, but I also know that if it is Yahweh's will, it shall be done.

There are about nine men who are seeking baptism at the Coffield Unit and we have another nine or ten on the mailing list so we could conceivably have a beginning group of 18 or so. Please pray about this situation.

I also have been travelling to Beaumont, Texas for the Federal facility there for about 1 year now. The time for that meeting is 6:30 p.m.—8:00 p.m. on Shabbat night (Friday evening) of the third week of the month. (The time change for the winter sets it from 5:30 p.m.—8:00 p.m.) I must leave home about 1:30 p.m. in order to arrive on time and don't return home until 12:30 a.m.—1:00 a.m. unless I get a little sleepy. If the desire for sleep hits me too hard, I pull into a Wal-Mart parking lot among the truckers and rest until I am able to continue home. (This has happened only once, but may happen anytime.)

I have also been contacted by the Chaplain at the Federal facility at Texarkana, which is only about 20 miles from home, who is interested in me taking part with the Sabbath/Messianic group at that facility. There are plenty of other prisons here in Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana, Florida, Ohio, California, etc. who need people to come in to direct meetings, studies, etc., but there just aren't enough people to go around for our little assembly. Please pray for us, and the men at these facilities. While it is demanding and somewhat difficult to serve, the blessings of fellowship are awesome, rewarding, and fulfilling. As Yahshua said, the harvest is plenteous, but the laborers are few.

TITHING

I know that "tithing" is a touchy subject for many people. Please don't think that I am addressing this subject only for this assembly's benefit. You can tithe to any assembly/church/organization of your own choosing. I am addressing this subject for your own benefit! Here is what Yahweh says, "Will a man rob Elohim? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings," Mal. 3:8.

COMMENT: Notice that the question is submitted, "Will a man rob Elohim?" Then the question is asked (by the people), "Wherein have we robbed thee (you)?" The answer is, "IN TITHES AND OFFERINGS!"

Then Yahweh goes further, "Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation," v. 9.

Have you ever considered this? If you are not tithing, you are actually robbing your Creator and bringing a CURSE upon yourself? The Hebrew word for "rob/robbed" is qaba which not only means to rob, but also to defraud, or spoil!

How can one remove this curse?

"Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith Yahweh of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it," v. 10.

There needs to be meat, food in Yahweh's house! The people who are serving Him, in the olden days, it was the priests and Levites today, it's the assemblies, ministries, etc. who are studying, and publishing Yahweh's word! Yahweh's word is spiritual food for the soul of the spirit! There are people in all ways of life who are ignorant of their Elohim and His word. But there are many who know something is wrong, yet, they don't know where to turn in order to find the answers to their dilemmas! There are so many who write to us from prison admitting that if they hadn't been incarcerated, they would have perished. They can see the guiding hand of Yahweh in their lives because they were introduced to the truth of Yahweh, His word, His commandments, His kingdom, etc. while in prison.

There are other assemblies out there who are seeking to do the same thing we are doing. We aren't trying to twist your arm to tithe only to this assembly. But you should be tithing to those who are serving you and others with the most vital truths of Yahweh's word! This also provides meat/food in their house not only for them and their families, but so those assemblies can continue to do a most important work in these last days.

Yahweh continues, "And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith Yahweh of hosts. And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a delightful land, saith Yahweh of hosts,” Mal. 3:11-12.

My wife and I have been tithing ever since we first entered the Lutheran Church. We weren’t there long before we changed course and direction because of coming in contact with the World Wide Church of God. We gave our tithes and offerings to that organization for the years we were there and were very blessed, not made rich, but we were provided for, and that is where I began to study Scripture much more deeply and came to see some powerful truths.

Then, we came into the truth about the true names. Now, I am not saying we have always supported every group with our tithes. We supported them until we found something wrong. Then we saved up our tithes until we came to another group that we proved they were doing our Creator’s work. Then we submitted our saved tithes, and subsequent tithes and offerings to them. We still tithe of our income to this assembly. When I was running my own business, I supported this work with my tithes. When my wife was working, she supported this work with her tithes.

This work that Yahweh has raised up through us has been blessed. Yes, there have been struggles, but we have always been provided for. However, most years of this work’s history, we have been in a financial struggle because the financial help from others has been in the negative. There have always been some months when we experienced a surplus, but there have always been far more negative months than positive, and far more negative years than positive in income.

Recently, I was reading Proverbs and my eyes and heart focused on Prov. 3:9-10, “Honour Yahweh with thy substance, and with the firstfruits of all thine increase: So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine.”

We have a fellow elder in the Philippines who has struggled to do Yahweh’s work with practically nothing. We have aided him financially on a regular basis, but the idea came to me, “Why not send a tithe of this work’s increase to this brother who is also struggling, but doesn’t allow his lack of financial help stop him from doing what he can for Yahweh there?” Since the time that I have determined to send a tithe of our income surplus to that brother elder, we have had an increase every month, and he has been greatly blessed by the financial aid that we have supplied for him!

The point is, believe Yahweh! Believe what He says! He will bless you if He sees that you desire His righteous ways, and He furthermore, will greatly bless you if you cease and desist from robbing, defrauding, spoiling Him of His tithes. Malachi 3:8-12 is a test commandment! He dares you to PROVE HIM! He wants to bless you!

The choice is yours! You can either continue to doubt, rob Him and be cursed, or test, prove Him and see what blessings He will choose to pour out upon you! Don't doubt, walk in FAITH AND OBEDIENCE!

As for tithing, you tithe on your increase, not your gross earnings. You should deduct the expenses that you suffer in whatever work you do. You will especially have the expenses of travel, but while I was painting, I had to make many purchases of goods, etc. in order to do my work. There is the expense of equipment, tools, etc. Yahweh requires tithes on the increase! Don't forget certain special offerings also. He does say "tithes and offerings."

If you need anymore information, just write or call. JH

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Dear Jerry, Just two things I wish to share with you. First off, thank you for your "Plea For Help" on behalf of fellow Torah observant prisoners like myself whom are held in prisons in Florida. We depend on Passover package donations for the observance of Passover.

However, this year the Florida Dept. of Corrections has decided not to allow any organization to provide Passover packages to any inmates observing Passover. They have elected, instead, to offer such items for sale in the Canteen. Therefore many inmates, including myself, won't be able to participate because of this new rule in Florida.

I would like to thank you and others who so unselfishly and generously have attempted to assist us in this matter. Peace be with you all.

ANSWER: We are deeply saddened by the news! May you all be blessed who are singled out for this type of persecution. I know that our groups are looked down upon with disdain and contempt in so many cases because of our stand on the Sabbath, holy days, true names, etc. While other groups are treated with favor and kids gloves, our own people have to suffer. Just remember, that that's how they have also treated the true Savior, so take heart and rejoice!

JH

The second is a little more complicated. I am housed with some members of a faith or nation calling themselves "Hebrew Israelites." Their founder goes by the name or title "Yahweh-Ben-Yahweh" and have deep roots in Miami, Florida as well as other parts of the country. One confused soul came to speak with me concerning their doctrine and how they interpret Scripture. It sounds more like Black Nationalism than truth and I can't be the only person incarcerated who has noticed this. Can you please expound on this group, its founder, its history, and their doctrine as what I see in Scripture is contrary to their belief. Thank you sir. MM/FL.

ANSWER: I googled "Yahweh Ben Yahweh" and here is what I found, "Yahweh ben Yahweh was the adopted name of Hulon Mitchell, Jr. (October 27, 1935 – May 7, 2007), founder and leader of the Nation of Yahweh, a black supremacist new religious movement founded in 1979. Born into a family affiliated with the Antioch Church of God in Christ in Enid, Oklahoma, his father, Reverend Dr. Hulon Mitchell Sr. was the minister and his mother, Dr. Pearl Mitchell was the pianist. Neither of the Mitchell's doctorates was academic.

In 1991, Mitchell was convicted of conspiring to murder white people as an initiation rite to his cult, as well as former members who disagreed with him, in one case by decapitation. He was released on parole in 2001 on the condition of not reconnecting with his old congregation. He died of prostate cancer in 2007.

The Nation of Yahweh set up its headquarters in Liberty City, Florida in 1979. Mitchell emphasized that God and all the prophets of the Bible were black and blacks would gain the knowledge of their true history through him. He also emphasized whites and particularly Jews as infidels and oppressors. Lastly, he emphasized loyalty to himself as the son of God, Yahweh.

At the time, his business and charity efforts earned him respect in the community. The mayor of Miami, Florida Xavier Suárez declared "Yahweh ben Yahweh Day" on October 7, 1990, a month before his indictment for alleged crimes.

Although his followers remained devoted to him, by the 1990s, he was in trouble with the law. From 1990 until his release on September 26, 2001, he served 11 years of an 18-year sentence on a Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act (RICO) conviction after he and several other Nation of Yahweh members were convicted of conspiracy in more than a dozen murders. Robert Rozier, former NFL player and devotee of Mitchell, confessed to seven murders.

The indictment charged 18 specific instances of racketeering, including 14 killings, two attempted killings, extortion and arson. He was acquitted of first degree murder charges in 1992.

Mitchell was released on parole in 2001, and returned to Miami, but his activities were strongly restricted until a few months before his death. He was prohibited from reconnecting with his old congregation. To assure this, he was restricted from any form of speech by telephone, computer, radio or television that could place him in contact with any congregational members.

In 2006, as he became increasingly ill with prostate cancer, his attorney, Jayne Weintraub, petitioned the U.S. District Court for his release from parole to permit him to "die with dignity".

A ruling on a failed appeal, U.S. v. Yahweh Ben Yahweh (792 F. Supp. 104) starts:

Violent crime cases are the exception in federal courts. The instant case is arguably the most violent case ever tried in a federal court: the indictment charges the sixteen defendants on trial with 14 murders by means such as beheading, stabbing, occasionally by pistol shots, plus severing of body parts such as ears to prove the worthiness of the killer. They were also charged with arson of a slumbering neighborhood using molotov cocktails. The perpetrators were ordered to wait outside the innocent victims' homes wearing ski masks and brandishing machetes to deter the victims from fleeing the flames.

However, his lawyers' attempt to end the conditions for his parole eventually succeeded.

Yahweh ben Yahweh only faced conviction for conspiracy to murder. A primary component of the prosecution's case was the testimony of Robert Rozier, a former NFL player and Yahweh ben Yahweh follower, who admitted to several of the murders and testified in return for a lighter sentence. Rozier later entered the Witness Protection Program, but returned to prison after being given a 25 years to life sentence under California's three strikes law, following a check kiting conviction.

He had the Federal Bureau of Prisons ID# 22031-034.

Yahweh ben Yahweh died May 7, 2007, from prostate cancer.

I already had my own ideas about a man who would name himself “Yahweh Ben Yahweh”, but after reading the above, one can only come to the conclusion that Hulon Mitchell Jr. has taken the Name Yahweh in vain in more ways than one!

In the first place, there is no place in the Scripture at all where any man was named with the full name Yahweh (יהוה). Many had the first two or three characters added to either the beginning or ending of their name, but never the full four characters. Even Yahshua, the true Son of Elohim only had three of the four characters in His name (יהושע).

It is obvious through this man's actions of not only taking on a double portion of Yahweh's name, that this man became so puffed up and high minded that he would have people slain, destroyed if he perceived that they had crossed him in some way.

Another grievous error is to consider their teaching that the Hebrews were black people, the only people of promise, while whites and Jews were some kind of devils. All men, without the Spirit of Yahweh, are under the spirit and control of the devil. Some to a greater extent than others, but all, no matter how righteous they may appear, are nothing more than “filthy rags” if their righteousness is not a result of the “Holy Spirit.” (Isa. 64:6—But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.)

Furthermore, Yahweh entrusted His “oracles” to the Jews, “<sup>1</sup>What advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision? <sup>2</sup>Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them were committed the oracles of Elohim. <sup>3</sup>For what if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the faith of Elohim without effect? <sup>4</sup>Yahweh forbid: yea, let Yahweh be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged,” Ro. 3:1-4.

“Oracles” just means the “words”. The Jews were given the responsibility of preserving the Old Testament Oracles/words of Yahweh which they do with great care, whether those same words serve to condemn themselves or not. What black African tribe can claim this? The African tribes were ignorant of the Scriptures until the “white men came, conquered, and converted them with those Scriptures. Some, of course, were enslaved of which a small number were brought to America, compared to the great numbers who were enslaved, not only by the Europeans, but the Arabic and black Muslims.

Another point is Jacob’s prophecy, “<sup>22</sup>Joseph is a fruitful bough, even a fruitful bough by a well; whose branches run over the wall: <sup>23</sup>The archers have sorely grieved him, and shot at him, and hated him: <sup>24</sup>But his bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong by the hands of the mighty Elohim of Jacob; (from thence is the shepherd, the stone of Israel:) <sup>25</sup>Even by the Elohim of thy father, who shall help thee; and by the Almighty, who shall bless thee with blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep that lieth under, blessings of the breasts, and of the womb: <sup>26</sup>The blessings of thy father have prevailed above the blessings of my progenitors unto the utmost bound of the everlasting hills: they shall be on the head of Joseph, and on the crown of the head of him that was separate from his brethren,” Gen. 49:22-26.

We know that Yahshua was born of the tribe of Judah to whom were given the oracles of Yahweh. So what does it mean “from thence is the shepherd, the stone of Israel? Yahshua is the Shepherd (John 10) and the stone (Psa. 118:22; Mat. 21:42; Mk. 12:10; Lk. 20:17). The builders, the Jews, rejected the Stone, therefore the Josephites (descendants of Joseph) preserved, and carried the word about the Stone, the Shepherd to all parts of the world. The major nations, peoples, who have published this word are the descendants of Joseph. Those people primarily are the people of Britain and America, however the Dutch, French, and Germans have had a hand in it also, but not nearly as great as the British and Americans.

Remember that the Roman Catholic Church suppressed the Scriptures and it took the Protestant Rebellion to eventually publish them and get them into the hands of as many people in the world who would desire them. Many of the early publishers of the Scriptures were slain by the RCC but she had no power to contain the tsunami, avalanche, whatever you want to call it, of Scriptures that are available in today's world.

The point is, the so-called Black Hebrews, who want to be the sole heirs, the sole inheritors of Yahweh's kingdom, blocking whites and Jews out (who were the ones who have preserved and published them) had nothing to do with the preservation and publishing of those things. They should heed Paul's warning in Romans, "<sup>17</sup>And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou, being a wild olive tree, wert grafted in among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree; <sup>18</sup>Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee. <sup>19</sup>Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in. <sup>20</sup>Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not high-minded, but fear: <sup>21</sup>For if Yahweh spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee," 11:17-21.

One other thing I want to touch on before closing is the fact that I have heard some people call the Savior Yahwehshua. This would be represented in the Hebrew as יהוהשע. Even though Yahshua, in His original spirit form, existed as Yahweh, the name Yahwehshua is not found in all of Scripture. We should take care not to add to what Yahweh has inspired to be written, recorded, nor to take away from it, “<sup>1</sup>Now therefore hearken, O Israel, unto the statutes and unto the judgments, which I teach you, for to do them, that ye may live, and go in and possess the land which Yahweh Elohim of your fathers giveth you. <sup>2</sup>Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of Yahweh your Elohim which I command you,” Dt. 4:2. “What thing soever I command you, observe to do it: thou shalt not add thereto, nor diminish from it,” Dt. 12:32. “<sup>5</sup>Every word of Elohim is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. <sup>6</sup>Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar,” Prov. 30:5-6. “<sup>18</sup>For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, Yahweh shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: <sup>19</sup>And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, Yahweh shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book,” Rev. 22:18-19.

There is a special reason that no man, born of a woman, should possess the full characters of Yahweh’s name, even on the Savior’s behalf. Yahweh Ben Yahweh has certainly taken Yahweh’s name in vain and will be held accountable according to the commandment, “Thou shalt not take the name of Yahweh thy Elohim in vain; for Yahweh will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain,” Ex. 20:6.

Let’s be careful in applying and understanding Yahweh’s word.

LETTER TO ANDREW:

Dear Andrew,

Shalom and warmest greetings in the awesome name of our Savior Yahshua the Messiah. I praise Yahweh that He has called you to His glorious kingdom through His beloved Son Yahshua the Messiah. I pray that you will remain faithful to Him to the end so that we may be able to rejoice in His glorious kingdom together. Hallelu-

Yah!!!!

You asked several questions that need to be addressed. First off, for those who say Yahweh knows their heart, indeed He does. He revealed our hearts in the Scriptures, "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? Yahweh search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings," Jer. 17:9-10. And Yahweh smelled a sweet savour; and Yahweh said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake; for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth; neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have done," Gen. 8:21.

Yahshua said, "But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him. Yahweh is Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth," Jn. 4:23-24.

Now to answer the first question, Do I, Jerry, believe that I received his salvation when I, Jerry, got saved under the name Jesus?

Answer: Absolutely not! The truth of the matter is that whether we are called or not, the Scriptures reveal that we can fall away from the glorious calling that Yahweh has called us to. Yahshua says, "To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of Elohim," Rev. 2:7.

Overcometh? Overcomes what? Peter said, "And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Spirit, whom Yahweh hath given to them that obey him," Acts 5:32. OBEY!!!!!!? Obey what? If, after we are called, we continue to walk in disobedience, we can quench the Spirit. Paul warns, "Quench not the Spirit," 1 Thes. 5:19.

You, yourself, know that we are given the commandments which teach us what sin is. John writes, "My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Yahshua the Messiah the righteous," 1 Jn. 2:1. What is sin? "Sin is the transgression of the law," 1

If, after we are called, we continue in sin, then we have fallen away. We are in danger of quenching the Spirit.

However, Yahweh must start with us somewhere, so when I was called I was utilizing the terms God, the Lord, Jesus, etc. I had to study the Scriptures to learn the truth of the matter. My first stop was the Lutheran Church, but that was only a short period. I learned about the commandments, the Sabbath, the holy days, the clean and unclean meats, etc., etc. when I was a member of Worldwide Church of God for almost 18 years. I had been baptized by them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, but my understanding was that the Father was God, the Son was Jesus, and the Holy Spirit was their power, their breath, their vitality, so to speak. I knew that something was wrong in the back of my mind. I longed for the Kingdom of heaven, I prayed for it, but I knew that if the Savior suddenly appeared I would be like those of Revelation 6 who will flee to the caves, dens and rocks of the earth to hide from Him. Then I learned about the true names. I was baptized in the name of Yahshua and I received a peace and love that I had never experienced before. I certainly want to continue in that awesome love! I never want to let it go!

Your second question: Did he – Jerry- get resaved under the name Yahshua, Yahweh?

Answer: Resaved!!!!!!? Truly, those who ask this question do not understand the truth about salvation!

Wasn't Israel saved out of Egypt, out of slavery? Millions were called and delivered (saved) from that evil oppression. But how many men about 20 years old and above were delivered into the land of Canaan, the land of Promise? Only 2! Yahshua said MANY ARE CALLED....Those who think they are called in today's world might consider themselves to be saved....but Yahshua continues, FEW ARE CHOSEN!

Even two of the most important men, Moses and Aaron, that Yahweh utilized to deliver Israel out of Egypt, and led the children of Israel in the wilderness for forty years, failed to enter into the Promised Land!

We may be in the process of being saved as Paul writes, “For we are unto Yahweh a sweet savour of the Messiah, in them that are saved, and in them that perish,” 2 Cor. 2:15. If we go to the Greek, “are saved” is literally “are being saved”, and “that perish” is “that are perishing.”

Our salvation is not complete until we are resurrected or changed from mortal to immortal, from corruptible to incorruptible (1 Cor. 15:53-54).

The third question: When we called on Jesus awhile back, did we receive the Holy Spirit then or what?

Answer: As stated, Yahweh has to start somewhere. When we were in Jesus, God, the Lord, Yahweh may have been working with us to bring us out of this world, but He called us to the truth. The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of truth. Peter says, “Repent and be baptized in the name of Yahshua the Messiah for the remission of your sins (lawlessness, lawbreaking) and ye shall receive the Holy Spirit.

Who were we really following when we were in Jesus, God, the Lord, etc.? Most are still keeping Sunday. Was Sunday commanded, or the seventh day Sabbath? The commandments say the seventh day Sabbath was commanded by Yahweh (Ex. 20:8-11). Who commanded Sunday? Constantine the Great, and the Roman Catholic Church. Wasn't Constantine just a man? So those who do Sunday worship are obeying the commandment of a man, not their Creator Yahweh. Doesn't Yahweh give His Holy Spirit to those who obey Him? Were we in obedience to Him when we were in the other way? As I say, He may have been working with us while we were there, but He had to be in the process of turning our minds, our hearts to the truth, because He wants us to worship Him in Spirit and in Truth.

Who is truth? Is Jesus or Yahshua the truth? We know that the name Jesus never existed until the 17th century, less than 400 years, but the name Yahshua existed in the Torah.

Your fourth question: Brother Jerry, please help me here too, for I get this Scripture thrown at me – Ro. 10:3-4 where the Messiah Yahshua is the end of the law.

Answer: Here is what it says, “Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to Yahweh for Israel is, that they might be saved. For I bear them record that they have a zeal of Yahweh, but not according to knowledge. For they being ignorant of Yahweh's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of Yahweh. For the Messiah is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth,” Ro. 10:1-4.

Does this mean that the law is over and done with and there is no more observance of the commandments of Yahweh? Just what, exactly, is the New Covenant? Ask any Christian and they will never be able to give a clear and concise answer to the question. But the New Covenant is given in Heb. 8 and Jer. 31:31. Yahweh says that He is going to write His law on the hearts of His people! Weren't the tables of the covenant (the commandments) placed in the ark of the covenant for a witness?

You see, if there is no law, then there is no sin. Man tries to describe sin as dancing, drinking, playing cards, etc., but that is man's definition, not Yahweh's. Yahweh's definition of sin is that it is the transgression of the law (1 Jn. 3:4). If we are called to Yahshua, then we must repent of our sins. Do we determine what those sins are or does Yahweh? The Greek word for “the end” is telos which is defined as; from a primary tello (to set out for a definite point or goal); properly, the point aimed at as a limit, i.e. (by implication) the conclusion of an act or state (termination (literally, figuratively or indefinitely), result (immediate, ultimate or prophetic), purpose); specially, an impost or levy (as paid). (Strong's Exhaustive Concordance #5056)

Look at the definition: to set out for a definite point or goal. In other words, If we are going to be righteous, then it can't come from our own obedience, but the obedience of Yahshua in us, because He is the One Who has perfectly fulfilled it. Now, through the Spirit given through Yahshua, we walk in obedience (however not perfectly yet) to His commandments. He is the One that heaven and earth were waiting for to fulfill the law, cleanse us of our sins, and then to live in us so that we can satisfy the requirements. It is His righteousness in us, not our own righteousness. Notice that it also has to do with an import or levy (as paid). He is the One Who paid the import or levy. The Greek word for “law” is nomos, which can refer to the 10 commandments, or the whole Torah, the five books of Moses. Yahshua said that He is the One Whom Moses wrote of (Jn. 5:39-47).

Paul writes, “Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. But now the righteousness of Yahweh without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; Even the righteousness of Yahweh which is by faith of Yahshua the Messiah unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference: For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of Yahweh; Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in the Messiah Yahshua: Whom Yahweh hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of Yahweh; To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Yahshua. Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith. Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law. Is he the Elohim of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also: Seeing it is one Elohim, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith. Do we then make void the law through faith? Yahweh forbid: yea, we establish the law,” Ro. 3:20-31.

“ESTABLISH” is translated from the Greek word histemi which is defined as: a prolonged form of a primary stao stah'-o (of the same meaning, and used for it in certain tenses); to stand (transitively or intransitively), used in various applications (literally or figuratively):--abide, appoint, bring, continue, covenant, estab- lish, hold up, lay, present, set (up), stanch, stand (by, forth, still, up).

Look at those definitions carefully; abide, appoint, bring, continue, covenant, establish, hold up, lay, present, set, set up, stand, stand by, etc., etc.

When John says that sin is the transgression of the law, and then commands us to “sin not,” He is commanding us to “not transgress the law.” Peter says that Paul’s writings are hard to understand, and there are those who twist his words, as they do the other Scriptures, to their destruction. So it looks like, or appears as if Paul is telling us that the law is done away, but then he says that we establish the law! We must understand that for us to go about observing the commandments under our own strength and power is only establishing our own righteousness, but we must be walking in His commandments through the Spirit that He gives us in, by, and through Yahshua the Messiah. Yahshua never sinned. We have a law of sin in our members (Ro. 7). Therefore, our keeping of the law, ourselves, will never work, but keeping it in Yahshua will. He becomes our righteousness. The point is that we must not practice sin. We must continually confess to Yahweh that we are sinners and that we need His forgiveness through Yahshua. Yet, we are to walk in His commandments in the Spirit of Yahshua.

Brother, I hope this helps you. I pray that your walk will be in Yahshua and that whether others believe you or not, listen to you or not, that your walk will be an example to them. Understand that your walk in Yahshua convicts them and that they hate you for it. We must always be looking to our example Yahshua the Messiah trusting in Him for His deliverance. May His love be upon you, and in you performing His good work until the day that He appears and establishes us as those of His household immortal, and incorruptible.

Thank you for your love and your questions. They do help to clarify, as well as bring to remembrance thing of great importance. JH

QUESTION: Lk. 4:5-7 Is Satan twisting Scripture to tempt Jesus (should be Yahshua) after His 40 day fast in the desert...Satan using the word power – not authority?

ANSWER: No. Yahweh gave Adam and Eve power, authority over the earth in the beginning, but the serpent entered the garden, deceived the woman, and she and her husband took of the forbidden fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. Through the curses, Yahweh assigned “dust” to be the serpent’s food, then told the man that he was “dust”. Thus, the flesh belongs to the serpent. He has power over it and therefore, power over the man because the man is flesh. The serpent has the power of sin, corruption, and death over the flesh. This can’t be reversed because Yahweh appointed it by His word and His word never fails! Man has the spirit of man in him from birth and very few men were given the Spirit of Yahweh throughout history until Yahshua’s birth. This gave the serpent power over the kingdoms of men.

Yahshua was the only man who had a woman for a parent, but Yahweh, through the Holy Spirit, was His Father. Therefore, the serpent desired authority over Yahshua and offered Him power/authority over all the kingdoms of the world if He would only fall down and worship him. If Yahshua had taken the bait, this would have given the serpent power not only over fleshly men, but also over those who possessed the Holy Spirit, and possibly over Yahweh the Father Himself. He has always sought to exalt his throne above Yahweh’s, “How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations! For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of El: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High. Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit,” Isa. 14:12-15.

The face-off between Yahshua and the serpent was the most important face-off, battle in the history of the world. Few people realize this. Yahshua’s victory over the serpent paved the way for victory to the house of Yahweh Elohim. Yahshua even had to die in the flesh, but He was resurrected with great victory over the serpent and death. He told His disciples, "All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth," Mt. 28:18. However, He hasn't taken the power to reign as of yet. He is awaiting the time when the Father will give Him that power, which will be at the Feast of Trumpets sometime in the very near future.

In the meantime, the adversary (satan) continues to reign as the god of this world (2 Cor. 4:4), and the prince of the power of the air (Eph. 2:2). Be blessed in Yahshua, JH

LETTER TO BILLY W.:

Dear Billy,

Shalom and warmest greetings to you in the awesome name of our Savior and Redeemer Yahshua the Messiah. We thank you so much for the offering that you blessed us with, and also the letter along with some history of the Greek word "Ixthys." I am sending you an article concerning it that I found on Wikipedia.

But I would like for you to consider some things. Firstly, the Greek rendering for the Savior's name, Iesou (-s), which is correctly transliterated in part of the Scriptures, and incorrectly transliterated in the other part. You see, when the 72 Hebrew Scribes, who were given the responsibility to translate the Hebrew Tanach (Old Testament) into the Greek language, called the Septuagint, did so, they utilized the Greek "Iesou/Iesous" to transliterate the Hebrew name Yahshua (יֵהוֹשֻׁעַ) into the Greek. Languages do change with time and the Greek is no different. There was/is no "sh" (shin) sound in the Greek. They were similar to the Ephraimites who couldn't say "Shibboleth." (Jud. 12). The best way that they could transliterate the name Yahshua was with Iesou/Iesous, which tells me that the name should have been pronounced like Yahsooa originally, but has been corrupted to Yaysoo/Yaysoos in today's world.

The King James Scriptures are a testimony to this because even in the modern world, in the Tanach (Old Testament) the Greek, and Hebrew renderings are Joshua in the English, while in the New Testament they are Jesus. The question would be: How is it that the more ancient Hebrew יֵהוֹשֻׁעַ and Greek iesous are transliterated into the name Joshua in the Old Testament, and the exact same rendering in the New Testament are transliterated into Jesus? So, where did the name Jesus come from? If we understand the truth about Daniel 8, we will discover that the little horn of verses 9-12, and 23-25 is none other than Constantine and his successors. He had served with His father in Britain. They had a priesthood called the Druids who worshipped a savior who was hanged on a tree. His name was Yesu, pronounced Hesus. On the European mainland, the Druids spelled his name Esus, also pronounced Hesus. So Constantine combined Yesu, and Hesus into the Latin Yesus. (All Latin Bibles utilize Yesus.) King James published it as Iesus in the 1611 KJV. People who utilize Jesus in today's world are being led into fornication by Constantine, and one of his successors King James (See Rev. 17:1-5, 18:3, Psa. 2:1-3, Jer. 23, etc.).

Ixthys

So what about Ixthys? As revealed in the article, ixthys is Greek for "fish." There is some deep meaning here that so many have overlooked, but the problem is that man simply can't help themselves by making images of everything and bowing down to worship them. Yahweh's commandment says not to make an image of ANYTHING IN HEAVEN, of anything on earth under heaven, or of anything in the waters under the earth to bow down and worship them.

I was led by Yahweh into a study on the calendar some time ago because of Psalm 19 which says, "The heavens declare the glory of Elohim; and the firmament sheweth his handywork. Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge. There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard. Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun, Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race. His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof,” vv. 1-6. I wondered if the story that the heavens was telling was the story of salvation. Sure enough, it was!

That study took me all the way back to the beginning. I discovered that when Adam and Eve were created and placed in the Garden of Eden, the equinoxes were taking place in Taurus (vernal equinox), and Scorpio (autumnal equinox). Taurus is a heavenly bull, while Scorpio is a scorpion. This told me that Adam, whose name starts with the Hebrew aleph (א), the first letter of the alphabet, which is the picture of the head of an ox in the more ancient Pictorial Hebrew, came under the STING (Scorpio/scorpion) of death. I found that historically, all of the gods from that time were primarily worshipped as bull gods. Pharaoh of Egypt was worshipped through the Apis Bull, etc.

I think that by the time of Abraham and Isaac, the equinoxes had shifted into Aries (the heavenly ram), and Libra (scales of justice [law]). It was during this age that Abraham was to offer Isaac, who was substituted by the ram, Israel was delivered from Egypt through the Passover lamb, and taken into the wilderness to be given Yahweh’s law through the covenant of Moses. Still later, Israel came under the rulership of the shepherd kings (through David and his lineage).

This age continued until the time that Yahshua appeared to perform the perfect sacrifice for His people. At the time of His appearing, the equinoxes were shifting from Aries/Libra into Pisces/Virgo. Pisces has to do with fish, while Virgo has to do with a virgin. Jeremiah spoke of this day, “Therefore, behold, the days come, saith Yahweh, that it shall no more be said, Yahweh liveth, that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; But, Yahweh liveth, that brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the lands whither he had driven them: and I will bring them again into their land that I gave unto their fathers. Behold, I will send for many fishers, saith Yahweh, and they shall fish them; and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks,” vv. 14-16.

It is interesting that shepherds were sent to announce Yahshua’s birth (Lk. 2), but when He began His ministry, he called fishermen. Yahshua ben Nun was also a type of Yahshua the Messiah, and His name declared when Yahshua would appear since Nun is נ נ in Paleo Hebrew, and even though the nun is the picture of a seed, or heir, it is also a picture of fish, which the name Nun would have two nuns (two fishes) and a waw (ו) between them which, among other things, serves as a conjunction. The nun also serves as the number 50, which is the number for jubilee, liberty, freedom, restoration, etc.

Yahshua sent His disciples out to be fishers of men (Pisces), so that they can become spiritual virgins (Virgo), through His sacrifice, and inherit the kingdom of heaven.

We are at the end of the age of Pisces/Virgo. The equinoxes are even now moving into their next age which will be the age of Aquarius/Leo. Aquarius is the picture of water being poured out. Water is a type of the Spirit (Jn. 7:37-39). Yahweh says that the day is coming when He will pour out His spirit on all flesh (Joel 2:28). Leo is the heavenly lion, a type of Yahshua as the Lion of the tribe of Judah. This will take place during Yahshua’s reign on the earth. His people will then hunt for Israel like lions according to Jeremiah.

Satan has corrupted and confused the earth. People can’t see the overall purpose for it all, but Yahweh never loses sight. His will shall be done, and the serpent’s purposes will all be destroyed. HalleluYah!!!!

Billy, I hope this little dissertation will help you a little in understanding what is going on. Yahweh gave this to me. I hope it doesn’t offend you in any way. It is just an overall picture of what has happened, is happening, and will happen. Yahweh be praised!

Blessings in Yahshua,

JH

LETTER TO DIANTE: Dear Diante,

Shalom and warmest greetings in the awesome name of our Messiah and Savior Yahshua. Thank you for your letter, and your comments and questions. You and I both were born in this country, and we were blessed by being born here. I have always loved this country, and have traveled to various places in the world and have seen the great difficulties that others were born under. Not that I wasn't born in a time of great difficulties. My family was very poor. My own father had to go to work at the age of 10 years old, doo-dling sawdust at a sawmill for ten cents (10¢) per day. The first 12 years of his life were spent in a tent. My mother's father died 2 weeks before she was born. Her mother was left as a single parent to raise her two children. Both of my parents lived through the Great Depression and both were so deprived of money and food that they almost perished.

I was born in a time when there was no in-door running water, nor bath facilities. Television was unheard of. We did have a radio, and electricity. We didn't have an indoor bathroom, running water until the early 1950's, television in the mid 1950's, and phone in the late 1950's. When I visit countries in India, the Philippines, Africa, etc. and they apologize to me for the inconveniencies there, I just tell them that their conditions remind me of my early childhood, to early teenage years.

I have seen this nation increase greatly in wealth for almost every person, to the problems that we are experiencing today. I truly wish we had worshipped and served Yahweh, giving him the praise, esteem, respect, etc. that He deserves, but the blessings that we have reaped are quickly disappearing.

You did ask some questions that I will give answers to with the best of my ability and with the understanding that I have gleaned through the years. Your first question is who is Israel? There are a number of authors who have written books tracing Israel, who have written concerning many of the Europeans, British, Irish, Scottish, Anglo Saxons, etc. being descendants of the ancient Israelites.

We do know that the Jews are descendants of Israel, and they have been given the job of preserving the Old Testament Scriptures. The northern kingdom of Israel was taken captive by the Assyrians who were positioned in the north. Yahweh divorced the northern kingdom, calling them "not my people," for their abominable pagan practices, and unrepentant spirit. However, He definitely knows who they are, and they will be completely revealed at the time of their resurrection.

They were taken captive northward into the Caucasus region, from whence we get the term Caucasian. One who was cast away was known in Hebrew as a ga'al. The French were called the Gauls, the Irish Gaels, etc. The Galatians were descendants of Israel.

The Israel's origins are that of Shem from whence came Eber, the ancestor of Abram/Abraham the Hebrew (eberite). Many of the French are named Hebert, pronounced like Eber/Aybear, etc. Yahweh will eventually have mercy on His people, but He purposely blinded them (Ro. 11) in order to sacrifice them for the rest of the nations of the world. The modern day Israelites (who are not Jews) are the ones who have been utilized to preserve the New Testament Scriptures, as well as the Old Testament also.

The good news is that all nations can be grafted into the Hebrew family to become children of Abraham through Yahshua the Messiah, HalleluYah!

Secondly, the Illuminati, who are basically freemasons, have been given control over the earth by the hand of Satan the devil. They promote the worship of the host of heaven, which Yahweh hates. Yahshua's kingdom is not of this world. His kingdom is that which is yet to come.

Thirdly, there will be a second coming and it is going to be a coming in power. Yahshua came the first time as a sacrificial lamb, but the second time He will be coming as the Lion of the tribe of Judah. He will put all authority down and establish His everlasting kingdom of peace and rest. May that happen soon!

May Yahweh greatly bless you in Yahshua the Messiah, JH

TESTIMONY OF A YOUNG JEWISH WOMAN

This testimony was produced from a Youtube video. It is quite revealing.

Two Thousand Years of Lies

The New Testament is probably such a shallow book. Lousy Hebrew, historical lies. They teach our people to be afraid to read this book. Honestly, I was shocked! For two thousand years they are lying to my people. I come from a Moroccan Jewish family. I'm Israeli.

I used to fast during Yom Kippur (day of fasting). I know the prayers of my favorite Moroccan Synagogue in my hometown. "I cried with my whole heart, O Lord: I will keep thy statutes." If you are a Moroccan Jew, you know, (singing) Yom Kippur is not the same if you don't sing it like that.

At the age of 15 I discovered a secret. My oldest sister became Christian, or something like that. She believes in Yeshu (Jesus). It wasn't an easy situation in my family. I was very upset. It was very important to me, things like Judaism and Zionism. I said, "What, you've become a traitor." "You've become a Christian now. You are not part of our people any more! They've brain washed you! You're in some sort of cult." We didn't see her at Shabbat dinners for a long time.

I went to a youth movement for many years. I was very serious with that. I lived in a core group, training camp, commune. In the army, I went to the Nahal Unit. At the end of my service, we were approached by the ministry of defense. They offered us to settle an old army base in the Galilee area and we founded a Kibbutz there.

We admired people like Carl Marks. We studied a lot of philosophy, psychology...we will make a better society, a utopian society...socialism, idealism... There was no God! Meaning there is no God. It was an obvious thing. I started being involved in Co-Existence with Jews and Arabs...helping others, helping the needy... I was certain that I was in the right way...that I was in the truth.

At some stage I became sober. I understood that with our idealism and our noble ways and beautiful ideals in our daily life...we do not live in a loving way to each other. I understood this was a lie. It was not the life I wanted to live.

I was searching for who I am. I was pretty depressed. What do Israelis do? Work and go traveling. I will go to South America. At the end I realized I didn't have enough money for a long trip in South America, so I went to India. What do you do in India? Everybody knows at the end, if you are against or for drugs, you find yourself. I remember I was in Goa. I received an email from my second sister. She believes in Yeshua now too! Now this sister was into Kabbalah, meditation, spiritualism, healing... So I said, wait a minute, wait a minute, what is going on here?" Another sister has gone crazy. They brain washed her. She joined that cult, she became a Christian. What's going on with my family? I will start reading, I will start exploring this more. I will prove them wrong. I got a New Testament book. I approached that book with hesitation. They teach our people to be afraid of that book. It's definitely a lousy book. Shallow, lousy Hebrew, historical lies... I found courage. I began reading it, and truly I was shocked! I said "Wow!" It's a Jewish book! It all happened here in the land of Israel! And Yeshua. He's one of us (a Jew)! Why do they lie to us so much? For two thousand years they have been lying to my people.

I remember that I simply loved Yeshua so much. I came from a socialist lifestyle. We tried to be perfect people and wonderful in our own strength. And suddenly there is a person like Yeshua that is so good simply because of who He is. He doesn't try to prove Himself to anyone. And He lived a life, the really accepted and loved the others sharing all He had with His disciples. I said, "If there is a God, I want to know for myself." I don't want religion. I don't want someone to tell me. I have an allergy to religion. I'm not interested in religion. At that time I lived in Tel Aviv. City of sin. I remember walking my dog on the beach. I said, "God if you exist Show me!" If Yeshua is truly the Messiah and He is your son, I want to know. I really want to know. And if you are real, I will give you all my life. More than I gave when I was in the Kibbutz...

socialist living in a core group. I was one of the leaders. I will give you my all. And really I felt the presence of God and the presence of Yeshua the Messiah. And simply no one had to explain it to me. I simply knew that Yeshua is part of God. I fell on the floor in my room. I repented. I didn't even have an idea of what repentance was. I wasn't even in that direction. I took the drugs that I had. I threw them in the garbage bin with the bong and the accessories. At some point my parents discovered that I believe in Yeshua the Messiah too. I am sure it was very difficult for them. But they really saw the change in my life. They saw me turn from a depressed, confused, and without purpose, to a more happy and peaceful person. I simply understood that this was the meaning of life, to know Him. To know Yeshua.

NOTE: This is a very inspiring video to see a young Jewish woman come to the truth about the Savior. But did you notice that Carl Marx, the father of Communism was their inspiration? The socialist, communist teaching seemed, at first, to be so seductive, but she eventually realized that they were being lied to which is what all in this world will have to do in order to learn the real truth about the Savior.

LETTER TO A BROTHER ON THE WORD AMEN

Greetings in our Sovereign and Savior Yahshua the Messiah. I received your letter concerning your research on the word "amen," and I must agree with you that there was an Egyptian god named Amen-Ra. I also want to thank you very much for the definition presented. After I reviewed your presentation and did my own research, it makes more sense. I hope you will agree by the time I am finished.

When I first came among the Sacred Name believers, they all refused to utilize the word "amen." They also didn't like to utilize the word Adon or Adonai because of the Greek god Adonis. I went along with them because I hadn't searched these things out.

I did do a research on the word "amen" and gave a message entitled "Who Took Away the Amen?" Boy! Did that get a lot of people riled up!

Here is what I found. The word "amen" looks like this in the Hebrew: (אָמֵן) amen. The Corresponding Greek word is amhn (amen). There is a corresponding Hebrew word that has been translated as "truth" in the book of Isaiah, "O Yahweh, thou art my Elohim; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name; for thou hast done wonderful things; thy counsels of old are faithfulness (אֱמוּנָה [emunah]) and truth (אֱמֶן [omen])," 25:1.

The Hebrew word amen (אָמֵן) has been utilized in the following Scriptures: Num. 5:22; Dt. 27:15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26; 1 Ki. 1:36; 1 Chron. 16:36; Neh. 5:13, 8:6; Ps. 41:13; 71:19; 89:52; 106:48; Isa. 65:16; Jer. 11:5; 28:6.

The New Testament is replete with this word, especially the book of John: Mt. 5:18, 26; 6:2, 5, 14, 16; 8:10 10:15, 23, 42; 11:11; 13:17; 16:28; 17:20; 18:3, 13, 18; 19:23, 29; 21:21, 31; 23:36; 24:2, 34, 47; 25:12, 40, 45; 26:13, 21, 34; 28:20; Mk. 3:28; 6:11; 8:12; 9:1; 10:15, 29; 11:23; 12:43; 13:30; 14:9, 18, 25, 30; 16:20; Lk. 4:24; 12:37; 13:35; 18:17, 29; 21:32; 23:43; 24:53; Jn. 1:51; 3:3, 5, 11; 5:19, 24, 25; 6:26 32, 47, 53; 8:34, 51, 58; 10:1, 7; 12:24; 13:16 20, 21, 38; 14:12; 16:20, 23; 21:18, 25, etc., etc.

Yahshua says that He is the Amen in Rev. 3:14. He is speaking to the Laodiceans, who evidently are in such a state of apostasy that they no longer can recognize Who He is. He proclaimed in John that He is the door (Jn. 10), but He has to stand at the door and knock. Why? Evidently because they have received another door.

Now, I don't know where you got the definition for "amen" unless it comes from some kind of Egyptian manuscripts, but if that is the Egyptian interpretation or meaning, I certainly wouldn't take their meaning and apply it to the Hebrew. After all Ra in the Egyptian is their sun god, but Ra in Hebrew has to do with bad, evil, wickedness, etc.

I must allow the Hebrew to define the word amen since it appears, and is utilized extensively in the Hebrew Scriptures. The Hebrew definition is: sure; abstract, faithfulness; adverb, truly:--

Amen, so be it, truth.

To me, since I have looked at your definition, if Amen-Ra means to let the truth be hidden, then how would they do that? Amen would be their word for true or truth as in the Hebrew and Greek, therefore, they hide the truth with Ra, their pagan evil god.

I do hope that you can see what I am getting at. Yahshua says that He is the Amen. He is the truth, and He is true. Therefore, I will utilize the word "amen" in its Hebrew context to lift up the Truth, that is Yahshua the Messiah. I hope you will do this also.

Now, when I look at this word in the Pictorial Hebrew I see: . The aleph () has to do that which is chief, first, strong, number one, beginning, etc. The mem () is a picture of water, which can be chaotic when in a raging uncontrolled mass, but is also necessary for life and useful for many things. Yahshua likened water to the Holy Spirit. The nun () has to do with a seed, sperm, heir, even fish, life, etc. Let's see, a seed () needs water in order to germinate. A fish () must have water to swim and live in. Even a sperm () needs moisture in order to work its way to the egg for fertilization. You can't have either without the beginning () that spoke it all into existence. After all, the aleph () is  in Pictorial Hebrew, or the mouth () of El ()

Yahshua is the Amen, the One from Whom all things have originated, been made. He is the one () who is the seed () of the spirit (). Look at Luke 1:34-35, "Then said Miriam unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Spirit (; water) shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing (: the seed, heir) which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of Elohim."

He also deceived another woman of whom the original woman was a type. That woman was known as the wife of Yahweh, ISRAEL! Jeremiah proclaims, “<sup>11</sup>And Yahweh said unto me, A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup>They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers. <sup>11</sup>Therefore thus saith Yahweh, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able to escape; and though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them. <sup>12</sup>Then shall the cities of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem go, and cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense: but they shall not save them at all in the time of their trouble. <sup>13</sup>For according to the number of thy cities were thy gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to that shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal. <sup>14</sup>Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up a cry or prayer for them: for I will not hear them in the time that they cry unto me for their trouble. <sup>15</sup>What hath my beloved to do in mine house, seeing she hath wrought lewdness with many, and the holy flesh is passed from thee? when thou doest evil, then thou rejoices,” 11:11-15.

They were forbidding anyone to prophecy in the name of Yahweh, “Prophecy not in the name of Yahweh, that thou die not by our hand,” v. 21.

The Jewish people of today forbid the use of Yahweh’s name. It is an abomination to them. Even the children of Joseph refuse to utilize the true names preferring “the Lord” (Ha-Ba’al), God (the troop, or heavenly bull), and Jesus (this name has only been in existence since the 17th century, but taken originally by Constantine from among the Druids of Europe and Britain called “Hesus”).

Ezekiel reveals, “<sup>23</sup>And the word of Yahweh came unto me, saying, <sup>24</sup>Son of man, say unto her, Thou art the land that is not cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of indignation. <sup>25</sup>There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey; they have devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof. <sup>26</sup>Her priests have violated my law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no difference between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them. <sup>27</sup>Her princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain. <sup>28</sup>And her prophets have daubed them with untempered mortar, seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, Thus saith Adonai Yahweh, when Yahweh hath not spoken. <sup>29</sup>The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy: yea, they have oppressed the stranger wrongfully," 22:23-29.

This is our world. The serpent, the politicians, and religious leaders are all in one great conspiracy! The conspiracy is to keep the knowledge of Yahweh and His real truth away from the people, to lift up the serpent and enrich themselves!

It began at the beginning and continues to this very day! While the immediate future looks very bleak indeed! Yahweh is going to remove the veil, the lies, and deception in the very near future! May your hearts and minds be set on the power and truth of His word so you may rejoice in His salvation!!!! JH
